

Writing

I could write and write forever
So many thoughts invade my mind
I struggle to pursue this true endeavour
Yet it seems I cannot get this puzzle right

I know there is a fine line
Between the confidence and lie (arrogance)
Why then I cannot reach a pattern of precise?
And liberate and liberate the SIGH!

Now listen to the message in your own words (lyrics)
What's the story trying to be told
Lose yourself in freedom of your soul
Let your muse feel entirely at home

And let the story unfold
It will define your right and wrong
Why lose your charm to those
Who yet to be alive?
To those who are alive your work will be SUBLIME

Let your story unfold
It will define your right and wrong
Let your story be told
It will define the right and wrong!
